Research Exchange Platform 2020 Opportunity for Researchers

About Heritage Hub

Located inside the compound of Wat Bo pagoda, Wat Bo Street, Salak Kamraeuk, Siem Reap, Cambodia, the Heritage Hub is a branch of Cambodian Living Arts based in Siem Reap. It supports CLA's wider mission; to be a catalyst in a vibrant arts sector, inspiring new generations. The Heritage Hub focusses especially on strengthening living heritage – the range of cultural and artistic practices that are part of people's lives, from music to ritual and crafts, and even food and social interactions. Our mission is to strengthen living arts and culture to bring culture, creative, and economic value to Cambodia, especially Siem Reap.

Purpose

To create a platform for researchers, especially early-career researchers from the greater Mekong region to promote their research findings on Cambodian arts and culture publically.

About the Research Exchange:

The Research Exchange is a regular basis platform taking place once every three months for early-career researchers from the Greater Mekong Region, to present or share their knowledge as well as research's findings on Cambodian arts and culture to a diverse public audience such as researchers, university students, and Siem Reap communities.
